FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEET & GREET ON THE BEL ETAGE

- Conference and banqueting facilities with history – the "Bel Etage" at Park Hyatt Vienna –

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, 15 May 2014 – In no other part of the Park Hyatt Vienna can one actually smell quite as much history as here, on the former Manager's floor of the magnificent, century old edifice. This former retreat of bank managers with a large conference room has been painstakingly restored to its original grandeur on the second floor Bel Etage. The "Grand Salon" and adjoining rooms, fitted out with the very latest equipment, are fascinating venues in which to hold meetings and conferences - including a view across the city's oldest square, Am Hof.

"Vienna has a wide range of historical, fascinating places and rooms in which to hold events", explains General Manager, Monique Dekker. "The Bel Etage at the park Hyatt Vienna provides a further 800 square metres of impressive meetings and events facilities. And these are located on one of the oldest of Vienna's squares, in the centre of the city, steeped in the subtle charm of the Hyatt and combined with all its luxurious amenities and excellent cuisine."

Grand Salon & Meeting Space

Working in close association with the Bundesdenkmalamt (national heritage office), the reconstructed ballroom was meticulously and lovingly brought out of the middle of the last century to become the centrepiece of the Bel Etage.

With the help of a one hundred-strong team of craftsmen, the historical interior was painstakingly recovered and restored. One cannot fail to admire the listed wall tapestry from the 1950s and the 100m² rug, a copy of the hand-knotted original from the Scottish carpet manufacturer, Craigie Carpets Ltd.. The Bel Etage balcony affords wonderful views over the Am Hof square immediately in front of the hotel.

The Grand Salon can also be hired as an venue for events, with its exclusive ambiance adding a touch of splendour to weddings, gala dinners, cocktail receptions, presentations or cultural events. The Bel Etage Salon can hold 100 guests (seated) or 200 guests (reception). Alongside the Salon, there are five conference rooms that are fitted out with the very latest equipment. These rooms can hold between 30 to 40 delegates.

Guests of the Bel Etage can also benefit from the excellent cuisine on offer at the Park Hyatt Vienna. The kitchen brigade, lead by Styrian Head Chef, Stefan Resch, prepares a full range of European cuisine, reinvented with a heavy local twist. The culinary concept forms part and parcel of the room hire and provides guests with tailor-made set menus, fully customised to reflect the type of event and the customer's particular requirements.
